Spectator Deplores Lack of Interest by Borough's Leading Citizen

ADDED DONORS LISTED

By THE SPECTATOR
The shooting came to pass last Saturday, the 10th, but, after the way of postponed affairs, it seemed to lack the wonted zest and neither was the crowd of the usual proportions.

Part of this was no doubt due to the excessive weather, even if the Playground were the coolest spot for miles around, but it occurs to this observer that the chief blame for the lethargy might well be placed on the shoulders of that middle age which now stalks so heavily amongst us and which is making our youth a gone and forgotten thing.

For instance, there was precious little evidence of the personal or pecuniary interest of the town's officialdom and as regards the American Legion, the Post Commander simply said that he did not know what the trouble was, as less than a quarter of the squad showed up for an occasion which rated full attendance, irrespective of how pressing other engagements were supposed to be.

Naturally enough, the cash results were affected, and rather sadly, as the commitments which were made for a collection in advance were not observed, not even a gesture being made to do what was promised, and so there can hardly be any complaint when we declare there is no surplus to disburse, much as we sincerely desired it otherwise.

If you have been reading Dr. Heiser's "Odyssey," you may have been socked in the eye by the statement of Peter B. Kyne, the novelist, which he printed and which is quite in tune with the experience of those men and women who cope with a general public in a desire to bring to pass some things which will pack more into life or provide gains to the

William Hoyt Coleman Dies in His 98th Year

Narberth Resident Was on Editorial Staff of "Country Gentleman" 51 Years

William Hoyt Coleman, who for 51 years was on the editorial staff of the "Country Gentleman" magazine, died Saturday at his home, 409 North Narberth avenue, Narberth. A resident of Narberth for twenty-six years, Mr. Coleman would have been 98 years old September 2.

He died after an illness of two weeks.

Funeral services were held Tuesday evening at an Ardmore funeral home, with the Rev. Dr. John Van Ness, pastor emeritus of the Narberth Presbyterian Church, officiating. Interment was in Woodlawn Cemetery, New York City.

Mr. Coleman, who was born in Hartford, Conn., joined the staff of the Country Gentleman when it was published in Albany, N. Y., and came to Narberth in 1911 when the magazine was bought by the Curtis Publishing Co. He was a member of the Madison Avenue Reformed Church of Albany.

In his early life he was interested in scientific agriculture for several years as a nurseryman in Geneva, N. Y. He always took great pride in his Narberth garden, in which he worked regularly until his strength failed.

During the Civil War, Mr. Coleman, whose near-sightedness prevented him from joining the Union Army, served as a citizen nurse in the Patent Office Hospital, Washington.

He is survived by a daughter, Laura H. Coleman of Narberth. His wife, H. Coleman of Narberth. His wife, in 1927, and a son, M. Merwin Coleman, died in 1928.

Sparks Cause Fire Alarm

The Narberth Fire Company was called to a residence at Elmwood and Essex avenues last Friday morning when sparks on the roof threatened to set fire to the house. No damage was caused, however.

Next Registration Days for Voters July 21-22

The second opportunity for Montgomery county citizens to register under the new Permanent Registration Act, will be next Wednesday and Thursday, July 21 and 22.

Registrars will sit both days from 10 A. M. to 3 P. M. and from 7 P. M. to 10 P. M. (D. S. T.) at these regular polling places in this community:

Narberth—No. 1 District—Narberth Fire Company Elm Hall, Forrest avenue.

Narberth—No. 2—Community Building, Windsor and Conway avenues.

Narberth—No. 3—Headquarters of Boy Scouts, N. W. corner Essex and Elmwood avenues.

General Wayne District—John Albrecht's Nurseries, Montgomery avenue and Meeting House lane, Narberth.

Merion District—Merion Tribute House, Hazelhurst avenue, Merion.

Wynnewood District—Wynnewood Station House, Wynnewood road, Wynnewood.

The final registration days this year will be August 11 and 12.

Delivery This Weekend for New 'Phone Books

Directory Shows Good Gain; "Check Old Volume Before Collection"

The new telephone directory is being delivered in Eastern Main Line communities. Distribution began yesterday and will be completed tomorrow, it was announced by Donald M. Huber, district manager for the Bell Telephone Company of Pennsylvania.

Approximately 26,000 directories will be delivered to the homes and offices of telephone subscribers. This figure represents a gain of 2,000 over the previous issue. A force of 75 men are making the distribution.

Mr. Huber estimated that there has been a gain of approximately 9,200 listings since the last directory was published. This brings the total number of listings in the white section of the new book close to 122,600.

"The new directory contains many new and changed numbers," Mr. Huber continued, "and time will be saved if subscribers will consult it for the correct numbers before placing calls."

"Occasionally, memoranda, papers or other valuable material are inserted between the pages of the telephone directory by subscribers. For this reason a last minute check of the old directory before it is collected may save a long and possibly fruitless search later on."

Husband of Narberth Woman Victim of Heat Prostration

Thomas Wright Jackson, Jr., 31, of Wayne, died in Montgomery Hospital, Norristown, last Friday evening of sunstroke. He had collapsed during the afternoon while working in Norristown where he was an inspector for the Pennsylvania Railroad.

Funeral services were held Monday afternoon at the home of his wife's family, 103 South Narberth avenue, Narberth, with interment in St. Paul's Lutheran Cemetery.

His wife is the former Miss Elizabeth Jones and he is also survived by two sons, Peter and Thomas; and a sister, Mrs. F. J. Kinnerle, Oak Lane.

6 Borough Building Permits Total $12,500 During June

Six permits for building estimated to cost $12,500 were issued in Narberth during June by Building Inspector George B. Suplee, as follows:

Civic B. & L. Association, 111 North Narberth avenue, demolishing house, $100; Paul Loos, 17 Shirley road, roof, $350; First National Bank, West Chester, new roof at 720 Montgomery avenue, $250; Joseph M. O'Connor, Inc., house 8A Berkeley road, $6000; Albert Clift, 105 Woodside avenue, garage, $500; Michael Collins, 33 Narbrook Park, addition, $5500.

Sixty-five inspections of buildings were made by Mr. Suplee during the month.

$950,000 School Bond Issue Vote For New Building September 14

Lower Merion taxpayers will be asked to approve a $950,000 bond issue to cover the cost of a new junior high school building and other school work in the township at the primary elections on September 14.

Plans for putting the bond issue question before the public were completed at a meeting of the township Board of Education held in Ardmore last Monday night, at which E. E. Burlingame, president of the board, presided.

Board officials explained that careful financing and the expiration of current bond obligations will make an increase in the school tax rate unnecessary, should the bond issue be approved by Lower Merion voters.

The new junior high school building, for which there will be a pressing need by 1939, according to Superintendent of Schools S. Edgar Downs, will be built in Cynwyd on property now owned by the school board adjoining the Cynwyd Public School on Bryn Mawr avenue. Architects have estimated that it will cost about $685,878.

The remainder of the bond issue will go toward improving the Academy Building in Cynwyd, expansion of athletic facilities at the school grounds on Montgomery avenue, etc.

The total net funded indebtedness of the school district at present is $1,582,998. This could be increased by the school board by $469,653 and still stay within the two per cent limit allowed; or the taxpayers could by vote increase the bonded debt by $4,455,337, and still stay within the seven per cent legal maximum.

Among other business transacted by the school board was the appointment of eight new teachers and the retention of the district solicitor, and the postponement of the award of contracts for two new school buses.

Teachers chosen for the high school were:

Ernest J. Swartz, graduate of Temple University, with three years' experience in the Pleasantville High School, as music instructor in the Junior High School.

Mamie T. Kirk, a graduate of Lower Merion High School and Drexel Institute, with nine years' experience in the Philadelphia Public Schools, as a domestic science teacher in the Junior High School.

Teachers chosen for positions in the grade schools included:

Elizabeth L. McKain, a graduate of the Philadelphia Normal School and Pennsylvania State College; Ruth M. Duncan, a graduate of India Normal School with twelve years' experience in Connellsville; Evelyn E. Perrill, a graduate of Wittenburg College, with seven years' experience; Jean E. Peters, a graduate of Millersville College with six years' experience;

News to Emphasize Local Happenings

New Publisher Promises Complete Coverage of Timely Events

The News of Bala-Cynwyd, nearing the completion of fourteen years of successful publication as eastern Lower Merion's only newspaper, is planning, during the summer months, a complete program of editorial improvement to be ready by Labor Day—less than two months off.

On July 1st Helen G. Greenwood became publisher of the News, succeeding Philip A. Livingston, who founded the paper in 1923. Mrs. Greenwood, who has served as editor since the first of the year, assumes full responsibility for the destinies of the community paper with the encouraging aid of a large number of local and township residents interested in the success of the News.

"Organized groups are the main springs of community life," the new publisher believes, "and the careful reporting of the work of these organizations represents a large part of the success of a paper like this. The News of Bala-Cynwyd wants to do a better job than ever before, and the advice of our readers will be most valuable. Have we overlooked anything? Do we miss the doings of clubs or individuals? Let us know?"

The News, in leaving the Livingston

64 Park All Night in June

According to the report made before Borough Council Monday night by William H. Durbin, Public Safety Chairman, sixty-four all-night parkers were haled before Burgess John R. Hall during June. Sixteen other minor violations were also reported.

Fire loss for the month was $530, according to Fire Chief Charles V. Noel.

Ranger Lodge Opens Fifth Season With Many Activities Under Way

(Editor's Note: This is the first in a series of letters from the boys at Ranger Lodge, Casco, Maine.)

Two Greyhound buses steamed out from Narberth Station last Tuesday, and the fifth season of Ranger Lodge had started. While the buses trekked northward, twenty-odd boys were already at camp, hastening to finish preparations before the rest of the party arrived.

Bill Whiting, Downs Longaker and Don Smith put out two piers while Doc Ricketts and Dick Withington constructed the best ball diamond Ranger Lodge has ever had. Bob Rowley, Bill Grugan, Johnny Stoudt, Dan Karcher and a host of others put up tables in the dining hall, dug up old stumps and generally made themselves useful.

About six o'clock on Wednesday the 1937 horde raced down the road with Rolly Young and Jim Carey leading the way. Soon the waters of Pleasant Lake were in a turmoil as the boys enjoyed their first swim. Bobby Paine and Johnny Bartle showed they had lost none of their ability over the winter and promised to make it tough for opposing camps in the swimming meets.

Baseball, riflery and tennis blossomed as the most popular activities. Howie McConnell, Pete Hicks and Harry Middleton proved to be the diamond stars, while Hank Ludlow and Joe and Gordy Clausen showed the most on the tennis courts. Billy Deal shot

Penn Valley Flower Show in September

Community Gardeners Will Compete for Prizes in 30 Classes

The Penn Valley Garden Club held an informal special meeting at the home of the president, Mrs. John A. Lafore, of Penn Valley Farms, Penn Valley, at three o'clock on Monday afternoon to discuss items pertinent to its Fall Flower Show to be held September 14 from 3 P. M. to 9 P. M. in the gymnasium of the Montgomery Day School.

There will be about thirty classes for which schedules will be ready soon.

The show will be open to the members of the community who are interested and there will be awards for those winning the first, second and third prizes in the various classes.

At this time members of the club may compete for the President's Cup which will be awarded to the member having the most awards of firsts.

Another feature will be the awarding of the Treasurer's Cup by Mrs. Walter D. Fuller to the person having the highest numbers of firsts in the various classes. This may be competed for by both the members and residents of the community.

Williams to Oppose Knight for Common Pleas Judgeship

Both Republican and Democratic petitions for J. Ambler Williams, Norristown attorney, are being circulated for the office of common pleas judge in Montgomery county.

This is the first definite opposition reported to the sitting jurist, the Honorable Harold G. Knight, who is president-judge of the county courts, and in whose behalf petitions are also in circulation.

Williams, who served on the county bench from 1923 to 1934 including several years as president judge, was defeated for re-election by Judge William F. Dannehower.

In 1935 Williams was defeated as a candidate for the Pennsylvania Supreme Court.

Petitions also are being circulated for Judge J. Burnett Holland, president judge of the Orphans Court, who thus far is unopposed.

Son Visiting Battlefields Started "Missing" Alarm

A youthful desire to see the battlefields of Gettysburg caused the parents of Robert Wilnot last week-end to report him missing to the Lower Merion police.

Robert, the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Wilnot of Essex avenue, Narberth, left for Phoenixville last Friday morning, announcing he would return later in the day.

Saturday morning the parents received an unsigned postal card from Gettysburg, reading "Bob seen here last night."

Saturday night Robert, who will be a Lower Merion High School senior next year, returned home.

Township Relief Increases

Narberth's relief cases remained the same last week at four, but Lower Merion's list was increased by two families and now numbers 29.

Heat Only Victor as "Dream Game" Ends in 7-7 Tie

"Lowers" and "Uppers" Battle Valiantly 12 Innings for Players' Fund

BORO BEATS U. D. 10 TO 2

Dream games may become annual, or even more frequent affairs with the Main Line League, but it is doubtful if ever a more closely contested one will be fought than the circuit's first one last Saturday on the Narberth field.

For twelve innings the Lowers (Narberth, Brookline, Gladwyne) and the Uppers (Coatesville, Paoli, Pottstown and Downingtown) battled with the score tied on three different occasions and ending in a 7-7 deadlock.

During that time 3000 fans who contributed to the Players' Disability Fund saw Manager Eddie Hare of the Lowers use 19 men to stem the tide while Ed Sheridan, manager of the Uppers, put in 17 players to hold the fort.

At the end of the twelfth, Walter Hanley, league president, decided everyone had had enough, the heat being what it was, and called the game. So now there will have to be another "Dream Game" sometime to decide the supremacy.

There was little to choose between the two teams in the three-hour-and-twenty-minute tussle. The Lowers made the most and heaviest hits while the Uppers made the fewest errors and bunched their bingles better.

On Sunday Narberth had no difficulty in keeping at the head of the percentage column, handing Upper Darby a 10-2 defeat, with Al Herrmann limiting the 69th Streeters to two hits. Al also had a three-bagger to his credit.

Brookline nearly joined Gladwyne in a tie for second place, just nosing out Coatesville, 11-10, while the third-place Merion Square team went on a batting spree to humble Downingtown, 14-5.

Narberth will be host to Gladwyne tomorrow while Pottstown will visit the borough diamond on Sunday.

Plan Elm Hall Debt Pay Off in 12 Years

Details of $22,200 Amortization Being Considered by Council

An amortization is planned of the $22,200 mortgage on Elm Hall, Narberth, held by the Philadelphia Contributionship.

Under the plan as outlined by William H. Durbin, chairman of the Public Safety Committee, before Borough Council Monday night, the money would be paid off in 12 yearly installments of $2000 each with interest (now 6 per cent) of 4 per cent.

While no definite action could be taken at the July meeting, it is understood that Narberth Borough would act as surety for the Narberth Fire Company which owns the building. Details of the financing are expected to be completed by the August 9 meeting.

Council passed an ordinance amending and simplifying the ordinance governing the police force in Narberth, so that policemen's salaries could be fixed by an ordinary motion by a councilman. Previously salary changes could be made only by passage of separate amendments. Present salaries are $175 monthly for the sergeant; $150 each for three patrolmen; and $121.50 for the probationary patrolman.

A temporary loan of $15,000 from the Philadelphia National Bank was authorized, to meet current expenses of the borough until 1937 tax money is collected.

Council also authorized, on recommendation of Robert F. Wood, chairman of the highway and sewer committee, the expenditure of $700 to

Playground News

Every day during the past week the wading pool on Narberth Playground had anywhere from forty to fifty youngsters of all ages in it. Here the children cooled off from the hot weather that characterized the whole week. Mothers found it a great aid, for they could send their youngster or youngsters down to the grounds, where they are under trained supervision.

Handicraft

Cub Scouts, working on various kinds of projects to qualify them for admission into the regular scouts, tasted their first work, when they started on handicraft under the supervision of Isaac B. Knoll. Leathercraft featured the first day's work. Miss Julia Landis started the handicrafters on plaster-of-paris, hot mat and weaving projects.

Sports

The Narberth Senior Team was defeated in a fast ball game by the South Ardmore Baseball Team, who are in second place in the Delmont League. Ted Finn, pitcher and captain of the Narberth team, gave too many hits to the visitors, and they won by the score of 7-4.

The tennis and paddle tennis tournaments have been made out. A ladder type tournament is used, which insures continual play on the part of the contestant, for he or she challenges those players rated above them in the various sports.

"A Star is Born" Features Janet Gaynor at Narberth

"A Star is Born," now at the Narberth, stars Janet Gaynor and Fredric March in this color film directed by William A. Wellman. The story, a realistic study of Hollywood life, depicts the rise of a young screen actress, her marriage to a falling star, and the conflict and tragedy that ensue when their upward and downward paths meet.

The popular "Play Bonus" is the added attraction Monday evening when the picture will be "Devil's Playground" with Richard Dix, Dolores Del Rio and Chester Morris.

On Tuesday only, Warner Oland will be seen in the title role of "Charlie Chan at the Olympics," in which the Chinese detective solves another exciting mystery.

Wednesday (Cash Award Night) Roland Young is featured in "The Man Who Could Work Miracles." The story is from the pen of H. G. Wells.

Next Thursday, Friday and Saturday the Narberth will present "Cafe Metropole" with Loretta Young, Tyrone Power and Adolph Menjou.

Copy early in the week is appreciated.

48 out a possible 50 in riflery, Fred Smith a 42 and Billy Jones a 39. Little Dickie Deal, only eight years old, made the very commendable total of 28.

Jim Quinn spent the week journeying to neighboring camps to arrange sporting contests with other camps. Rifle matches, swimming meets and baseball games and basketball games will be played against Hawthorne, Koda, Agawan and Kingsley. There will be three classes, for 12, 15 and 17 year old aggregations. The first fracas will be a rifle match with Kingsley next Tuesday.

The feature of the week was a ball game between the councilors and the boys. After seven hectic innings, the councilors emerged the victors by a score of 9 to 8. Billy Pudvah, the new councilor from Arnold College and Doc Ricketts of Pennsylvania starred for the winning side, Pud's running catch back of third being the greatest individual play. Howard Nold, George Paine and Dick Miller led the lads in an uphill battle but the old men had the staying power to finish on top.

Dicky Ryan lighted the first campfire on Saturday night. Roger Fox and Dana Cahoon entertained the boys with story and song and L. B. Fowler did the verbal end of the proceedings.

Inspection started during the week with cabins nine and ten taking an early lead. Jim Deakins, Bobby Roberts and Dick Custer keep cabin ten immaculate while Buzz Torrey, Jack Schofield and Boyd Brodhead wield potent brooms for cabin nine. However, cabin twelve, ably assisted by Chick Stoudt, is right on their heels.

The peanuts spent one morning climbing Ranger Bump, the little mountain back of camp. Fred and Jack Stelwagon were the first to reach the summit with Paul Olsen and R. Thomas pressing them all the way.

The two new canoes along with the half dozen old ones are in constant use but lack of wind has kept the sailboats at anchor. At the present writing, however, the wind is freshening, and the sloops will see action during the next week along with the other equipment.

Sunday night saw the first fraternity meeting. These gatherings are to promote singing and jollity. John Martin gave his ever popular imitations and Ralph Moss rendered current jazz favorites on the piano.

$950,000 School Board Bond Issue Vote on September 14

Edith A. Wood, also a graduate of Millersville College, with two years experience, and Theodore N. Robinson, a graduate of West Chester State Teachers College.

Postponement of the awarding of the contract for the two new buses was decided upon on the grounds that state requirements for buses had undergone radical changes within the last two months, and that the school board was no longer sure that the purchase of the buses was the best policy to follow at this time.

No mention was made of the controversy over the previous award of the bus contract to the Mack Company. At that time officials of the Autocar Company of Ardmore claimed their bid to be low, and listed "six compelling reasons" why their company should be awarded the contract.

Julia E. Reeder

Julia Reeder, wife of Wesley M. Reeder of 334 Lantwyn lane, died Sunday after a critical illness of three months.

Funeral services were held at 2:30 on Wednesday afternoon at her late residence with interment at West Laurel Hill Cemetery.

Mrs. Reeder, who has been an invalid for a number of years, had resided in Narberth since 1925. She is survived by two sons, Lynn H. Reeder and Harold Reeder.

human scheme of things. Says Kyne: "... I have no faith in the average human being having born within him a hunch that he ought to do something for another average human being; I think there are about 5 per cent of the human race which have anything like a noble aspiration ... about 90 per cent of man's inhumanity to man is quite unconscious and innocent ... somebody has to take them by the nose and lead them forward while somebody else prods them from the rear. Then and then only will you achieve results."

build a new cinder-block wall and wooden gate around the borough storage yard, in the rear of the borough garage, to take the place of the present wooden fence.

Mr. Wood's report also recommended general repairs, at a cost not to exceed $600, for the borough's Model RG Autocar truck, purchased in February, 1934.

Not recommended was the purchase of a light dump truck for which there is an appropriation of $1,000 in the 1937 budget, because "the present Ford truck has a sales value of only about $50, but actually it is in good operating condition. ... We believe it would be better, if and when an additional dump truck is required, as when snow must be removed in the winter, to hire such equipment from local tax payers whose business it is to rent trucks."

All the recommendations were approved.
